Background Information

Base 51 is a charity and company ltd by guarantee, supporting young people aged 11 – 25 in Nottingham and the surrounding areas. The charity was started in 1993 initially in response to the lack of sexual health provision for young people and the recognition that young peoples' well-being is more than just addressing their physical health needs, but is about their whole person. This includes their emotional health, having settled accommodation, healthy relationships and ultimately making a positive transition to adulthood.

Support is provided in a young person friendly centre – situated in the NGYmyplace building in Nottingham. Base 51 is the lead organisation in NGY and holds the contract with Nottingham City Council to run the centre, this has broadened the provision for young people in the city ranging from young people participating in activities such as dance or drama – to providing support when in crisis, such as needing emergency accommodation or support with school, home or relationships. Young people now have all their support and social activities in one centre, where they also have a strong voice and active participation in the decision making.

Base 51 services include Counselling, outBurst (for LGBTQ+ young people) 1-1 support, group work and activities, based at NGYmyplace. We deliver sexual health sessions to schools and youth groups, bespoke counselling in schools and youth centres in the county.

Partnership Working

BASE 51 recognises the importance of partnership working and the added value that it can bring. Close working relationships have been developed with statutory and voluntary organisations locally and nationally.

Confidentiality Statement

BASE 51 is a Confidential Service and will not usually give out information to other agencies without the young person's permission. However, if BASE 51 thinks that there is a risk of harm to the young person or others then we may contact other relevant agencies to help.

NGY

BASE 51 is a partner in the Myplace project "NGY" a centre for young people in the city centre. Myplace is Department of Education funding to create "World Class" facilities for young people and the Nottingham City application was successful with the following partners;

- Nottingham City Council
- Nottingham University Hospitals Trust
- Notts YMCA
- Nottingham Forest in the Community

BASE 51 became the governing body responsible for the centre when the refurbishment was completed.
